Ulate has now been released, and Mr. Coultas feels that a neutral candidate may be pushed into the Presidency. This, Mr. Coultas says in his despatch on no. 922, would have the advantage of presenting a solid front of the two main parties against the infiltration of the communist element in the form of Vanguardia Popular.

Costa Rica is, of course, the most sane a spot of the C. A. Republics.

We must hope that the unrest brewing
further North will not spread, as there is certainly plenty of material for strife
here if someone wants to take advantage of it.
Mr. (eg. Moscow). The Vanguardia Popular is not, however, a genuine CP as it has affiliations with the Catholic Church.

Addressed to Foreign Office telegram No. 12 of March 3rd repeated for information to Washington and Saving to Mexico, Guatemala, Tegucigalpa, Salvador, Managua and Panama.

My telegram No. 11. AN 939.

Government has released Ulate unconditionally and he declares he is determined to fight for his rights by all possible means. Situation is, however, very fluid and there is still a chance that solution mentioned in paragraph 9 of my despatch No. 9 may be adopted.
